Tracy Johnson Named New Executive Director, Georgia Office of Dispute Resolution

Dear Georgia-Registered Neutrals,

I am delighted to share with you the news that Tracy Johnson has been selected as the new Executive Director of the Georgia Office of Dispute Resolution (please see the link to the press release above).

Many of you know and respect Tracy from her 17 years as Program Director for the Sixth Judicial Administrative District ADR Program. She brings to the Office not only her vast experience in the court-connected ADR field, but also a deeply held commitment to serve the needs and interests of all stakeholders in our ADR community neutrals, court programs, trainers, and the courts. We are truly fortunate to have Tracy back with us in ADR. I know the Office will be in excellent hands.

Starting late June, Tracy will take over the day-to-day duties of the office, as well as primary responsibility for most projects and programs, including a strategic plan designed to raise our court-connected ADR system to the next level of excellence. I am very much looking forward to working with Tracy and the Commission on projects that they feel make the best use of my experience.

Please join me in congratulating Tracy and welcoming her in her new leadership role!

Best wishes,

Shinji
